Guest Speaker: Andrew Brown

Andrew is a research fellow at the Global Obesity Centre at Deakin University. Andrew completed his Master of Social Work at Washington University in St. Louis, where he was trained by Peter Hovmand, a world leader in applying systems thinking to community-based health and social work.

Andrew's research focus is empowering communities to use systems thinking to address complex problems, such as obesity, mental health, and family violence.

Top Spin Campaign Competition

Young Victorians aged 18-29 years are invited to share their thoughts and creative ideas about what doesn't sit right with them about the culture of booze, and how they feel about the tactics and marketing spin of the alcohol industry. What do you think of the tricks and tactics they use to make sure you drink more – regardless of the repercussions? Have your say at www.top-spin.com.au - submit written, picture or video based entries online, responding to the themes of Advertising and PR, Influence, Booze and Sport, Life Lessons and Our Mates. Prizes include $1,000 to the best entry each week for five weeks. Entries open 3 May – 6 June 2018.

Sport and recreation funding opportunities and the Fair Play Code
